

Neolithic Hamburger

List, Group, Label

Make a list of all the things and processes required to make a hamburger, from the ground to the mouth. Then, group the items in your list into three categories to organize the ideas. Label each category in an illustrative way.

List	Group	Label

One Sentence Summary

Use your groups of evidence to write three claims for your one sentence summary to respond to the following problem. Remember, include a reason for your claims, which should be based on the evidence. Lastly, make sure you choose a side for your argument.

Evaluate the possibility of making a hamburger in the early Neolithic Age.